DEAR SIR:

Friend Chapman:

Yours rec'd — Envy $3.56 your due — When I commenced exchanging with you I supposed you would try & make an big- amt to something so the first thing I took from a lot of $5.00 $5.00 work whether I had immediate use for them or not — & you help from 10 to $1 out of $60 or $ & ask me to send you more Sheets & only help stamps just as fast as you sell them for cash to your customers — then you have the "cheek" to ask me to send you $3 or $4 more postage in addy for common reds sent you glad enough to put any thing of postage for reds — have sent you $30 — full worth of stamps & you have kept only $1.5 out of the lot is this going to payme — now once put your nuts about you & behave your self — Yours R. M. Weston

Mr. [illegible],

I [illegible] you commenced sending me [illegible] stamps. I was surprised at the high prices for the class of stamps being mostly ones that I buy by the doz & hundred, ~~[illegible]~~. I do not propose to pay you retail prices on this class of stamps. You made the price [illegible] [illegible] for the [illegible] revenues, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] mistake [illegible] you [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] them for cash to my customers [illegible] I have only sold about [illegible] worth of the [illegible] got from you so you will [illegible] [illegible] that you are [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] nothing about,

"[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] you [illegible] the "check".

[illegible] not desirous of [illegible] my [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] any kind of postage. ~~[illegible]~~
